Join us this holiday season as we celebrate the wines of Norman Hardie. Not only is Norm considered the pioneer of premium winemaking in Prince Edward County, but he has also become one of the most recognizable faces of the Canadian wine industry – both at home and abroad. His wines are celebrated by critics and sommeliers alike for their incredible focus and intensity, along with their commitment to showcasing the unique terroirs of Ontario. Many consider his wines to be among the most exciting being currently produced in the New World.

We are absolutely delighted to welcome this Canadian wine icon on December 9th as he presents wines from past and present to our guests. Join Norm and James Treadwell as they showcase some of the country's best wines alongside Treadwell's award-winning local cuisine.
